Christmas Day Offering
We always give our Christmas Day offering to causes outside the church, usually sharing between one at home and one overseas.
This year the home charity is Prospects, a Reading-based charity that works to help people with learning disabilities all over the country. The overseas cause is Sat-7, for their work in producing children's TV programmes for North Africa.

Bowls club parking - should you need to use this facility, please remember to park on the left hand side as you go in. Thank you.
