Belvoir - Just to let everyone know that this is my last Sunday with you all at Knighton, as I am off to Leamington next Wednesday, 10th February to start my advanced training towards becoming a fully fledged Guide Dog. I have enjoyed being with you all and the fuss you have given me since I arrived last April.

John and Cynthia will keep you up to date with my progress if you would like to know.

Elders' fortnightly update

The elders' meet to pray for, discuss and decide on issues to do with the church. We aim to keep you updated briefly here. For more details, please speak to one of the elders.

Last meeting was 28th Jan. Next meeting is on 25th Feb.

To help with the overcrowded church and time management each Sunday morning we are aiming to have the Sunday Club and KYP in for 15 minutes maximum and for the sermon to start by 11.15am. This is an initial solution as the elders will soon be considering the overcrowding on Sunday mornings and possible solutions/actions.

We are changing the church's constitution slightly to avoid the necessity for a "full audit" of the accounts each year. This is not currently a Charities Commission requirement but will make producing the annual accounts more straightforward.

In the coming months, we are partnering with two social action organisations: "Open Hands" - a Trinity Life initiative, and a "Besom" type initiative with Avenue Community Church and Oadby Evangelical Free Church. More details will follow in due course.
