Notice for church members:
We are now in the process of updating the handbook containing members' contact details. Members will have had, or will get in the next few days, a note asking them to confirm the contact details we hold. If you would like your picture in the handbook, or you would like a newer picture in the updated handbook, then Peter Anderson will be taking pictures after this service and after the service next Sunday morning. There will be a message in the service where you can find Peter.
