

Three
Sunday
Services

Knighton
EVANGELICAL FREE CHURCH

Sundays are important to us at Knighton. It is a time for the church to gather together, meet with God, hear God's word taught and preached, sing our worship to God, pray and encourage one another.

Sunday 12th September 2010 sees Knighton move from one morning service to two because we are full and want to grow. That means in total there will now be three services on a Sunday.

First Service

The first service from 9.15am to around 10.15am will be smaller and run in the Upstairs hall. It will feel quieter, more informal and there will be an opportunity for reflection as well as some participation. There will be a crèche but no Sunday Club.

Second Service

The second service from 11.00am to around 12.15pm will be a family oriented service which is livelier, with a larger band and with the same preacher and teaching as the first service. There will be a full children and youth programme available.

Third Service

The third service from 6.30pm to around 7.45pm, will have a separate teaching programme from the morning service and will aim to include varied updates about the church family and work in the UK and overseas. This service aims to appeal to all generations, from teenagers to seniors.
